

THE WELL DRESSED RAFTER

dress for success

CHILLY OR RAINY WEATHER

- Complimentary wet suits on full-day Chattooga trips in March, April, October and November. (Wildwater also rents booties and wet suits at some locations.)
- Complimentary spray jackets at all locations.
- Wool or synthetic (Thermax or polypropylene) garments are best. Cotton is not recommended, it will leave you wet, cold, and clammy.
- A good wool or synthetic cap can help significantly, 40% of heat loss is through the head.
- Wool socks are also recommended.
- Be certain to bring a complete change of clothes and shoes plus a towel. (Wildwater has showers.)
- Wildwater's river stores has Chums, sunscreen, waterproof cameras, towels, and other necessary items should you forget them.

SUMMER OR WARM WEATHER

- Wear a bathing suit and/or shorts with a T-shirt.
- Complimentary spray jackets at all locations.
- Shoes that will stay on your feet; old sneakers, sandals with a heel strap (NO FLIP-FLOPS).
- Sunscreen – particularly if you are fair skinned. The water reflects and enhances the chance of sunburn.
- If you choose to wear prescription or sunglasses, Wildwater recommends string or Chums to hold them in place.
- Be certain to bring a complete change of clothes and shoes plus a towel. (Wildwater has showers.)
- Wildwater's river stores has Chums, sunscreen, waterproof cameras, towels, and other necessary items should you forget them.
- Wildwater also rents booties and wet suits at some locations.
